WHO TOOK UP THE TAB?

Have you noticed that you have never been charged for the meal served at the Church Picnic? Every year, someone has donated the money for the meal's cost. The first few years, it was Blackwell and Jane Brown. Then came a succession of donors who chose to remain anonymous but who found joy in "hosting" their church family. This year's donors want to continue to host the church for the foreseeable future. Since I can't tell you who they are so you can thank them, go ahead and thank God for them.

Did you hear the announcement that another couple in the church decided to match contributions to Pack-A-Snack dollar for dollar through our Outreach Offering? Sponsored by Greene Memorial United Methodist Church, the Pack-A-Snack program provides nutrition over the summer for at risk kids. You generously gave $4,388.77, which means that around $8,776 is being sent to Greene Memorial to help in this important program. Again, I can't tell you who they are so go ahead and thank God for them as well.

You can thank Lauren Ellerman by name. She has headed up the effort to provide the food for around ten Church Picnics and has decided that the time has come to relinquish this responsibility. Responsible as always, she prepared a detailed "How To" guide for whoever follows her. When you see Lauren, let her know how much you appreciate her long-term ministry of hospitality in help-

SALLY I'ANSON

In 2020, Sally I'Anson was hired to head up our Preschool. With a back-ground in education and experience in having established a school, she was the adaptive leader we needed to shepherd the program.

We had no idea how adaptive Sally would need to be. Shortly after she began work, there was the closure, and then the carefully managed re-opening. She did not lose sight of the overall goal of positioning the preschool to flourish for years to come as illustrated by these accomplishments:

- Enrollment increased 19%, from 82 to 101 students.
- An 11-week Summer Program (8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.) for students 12 weeks to 5 years was implemented.
- Revenue grew due to increased enrollment and grants for which Sally applied.
- Hourly wages increased an average of 28%.
- Teacher education improved (monthly training sessions).
- Marketing and communication improved.
- Facilities and toys were vastly upgraded.
- A high quality (and free) early childhood curriculum, provided by United Way and aligned with the preschool's mission and vision, was acquired.

During her tenure, Sally became aware of the need for the creation or development of faith-based preschools. She also recognized that her joy is in doing this adaptive work rather than sustaining work. Building on her success with our preschool, she feels called to serve as a consultant for faith-based preschools. With gratitude for the opportunity she was given, and excited to remain an enthusiastic supporter of our preschool as a church member, she submitted her resignation effective July 30. The session accepted her resignation with thanks for her outstanding service to the church.

Thank you, Sally I'Anson, for the remarkable job you did as our preschool director these past two years.

Sally Nichols is chairing a search committee for a new director. We will keep that search in our prayers.

OPEN MIND

Recently, I finished facilitating the eight-week Open Mind class that benefited from the insights of the latest research on difficult conversations and how we can do better. We were among the more than 45,000 people participating worldwide.

Our time together was time well spent. We found the content to be easy to understand while also being wise and immediately helpful. We felt that we had been given insights and skills that will help us keep from being enflamed and, perhaps, help keep us from so easily enflaming others. At one time or another, every participant spoke of a session opening their eyes as to why conversations on certain topics are so difficult with a certain family member or friend.

We believe others would greatly benefit from going through this program, especially since our culture seems to grow more polarized as we move toward mid-term elections. If you would like to be a part of a second group, let the church office know. The best kind of group is a mix of social and political perspectives. If we have enough to move forward, we will.

BIBLE IN BLACK AND WHITE

Another eight-week class that went really well was the one I led with Rev. Bill Lee called The Bible in Black and White. I remain thrilled by both the size of the class and that the attendees were both... well... black and white. Our focus was on understanding, dialogue and relationship building. Bill said that in his entire ministry he had never seen a class like this pulled off so well and he praised God for it.

The strong consensus was that Bill and I needed to keep this going. Look for another offering this fall that will have different content but still be focused on understanding, dialogue and relationship building.

SUSTAINABILITY SPOTLIGHT

SUSTAINABILITY & YOUTH

You may recall that the 2PC Green Team partnered with the Youth Group in April to conduct a clean-up of church property along with adjacent streets and sidewalks in recognition of Earth Day. After collecting a significant amount of trash—trash that would have found its way into the storm sewers, rivers, and ocean—we met under the portico entrance for remarks and a closing prayer. We asked if any of the kids would be interested in learning more about the Green Team and/or consider serving as Youth Group representatives. We are excited that several kids have volunteered to serve as Youth Group representatives to the Green Team beginning this fall.

As youth representatives, their primary responsibility will be to serve as liaisons between the Green Team and the Youth Group so that we can develop closer ties and brainstorm ways to partner together on future activities. The Earth Day activity is a great example of what we can achieve together.

The church Sustainability Plan recognizes the importance of involving youth in creation care. The Green Team is committed to involving the youth of the church as we—as a congregation—engage in the tasks of caring for the Earth. The following excerpt from the Picnic Sunday Unison Prayer of Confession expresses it well, “...we are not the world's creator or its owner, but we are those to whom” God looks to “...for its care and protection.”

NOTES FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

“S&P 500 Hits New 2022 Low as ‘Staggering’ Market Losses Continue” heralds Forbes.

“Inflation’s Biting” reads a headline in Politico.

“More than 14 million people have fled their homes since Russia’s invasion of Ukraine” reports the BBC.

With all the uncertainty of world headlines, despair and a sense of nervousness can creep in. But as Paul reminds Timothy, “God has not given us a spirit of fear, but one of power, love and sound judgment.”

In my short time here, I have found this congregation to be a very generous and welcoming people. For that I commend you. Please don’t ever lose that generous spirit, even as we tighten our belts and scrutinize the budget.

Henri Nouwen reminds us to “...invest yourselves through the resources that God has given you—your energy, your prayers and your money—in this work to which God has called us.” Part of the work God has called us to is to serve with compassion and justice the people of Roanoke. Every day we see firsthand the tangible needs of the people of our community. And every day we can care for our neighbors because of your generosity.

As summer rolls along and we all enjoy a time of vacation and relaxation, please continue to invest in the mission to which God has called us. If your situation has been affected by the economic downturn and you need to adjust your General Pledge or your Mission Build Pledge, or you or a neighbor find yourself in need of assistance, please feel free to reach out to me.

My door is always open.

Nathan Anderson, Administrator

WELCOME NEW EMPLOYEES

On behalf of the pastors and the entire team here at Second, I am happy to announce two new team members have joined our staff. They are both joyful and energetic and bring a depth of experience in their respective areas.

Philip Johnson joins the team as our afternoon/evening custodian. Raised in Brooklyn, NY, Philip joined the Navy and served his country for sixteen years. After retiring from the Navy, he worked in security, maintenance, and custodial work. He has four daughters and four granddaughters, all of which live in Boston. Philip is proactive and likes to stay busy.

Lindsey Brinkman will join the staff as our new Financial Secretary. And while she has big shoes to fill by Cindy’s retirement, I am confident she will be a great asset to our team. After attending college in TN, Lindsey moved to the Chesapeake Bay area to work for a real estate company. There she managed all the firm’s accounting needs. Recently, she moved to Roanoke to be closer to family. She was described as attentive to detail and analytical.

We are excited to have Philip and Lindsey as part of our community. Please join me in giving them a big, warm welcome!

CINDY SOWERS’ RETIREMENT

If you have served on the Session or on a committee at Second Presbyterian Church, no doubt the name Cindy Sowers is familiar. To many of us, Cindy has been our right-hand woman, a faithful and steady member of the church staff. To others who may not have had the opportunity to know her well or work alongside her, Cindy is a big reason our church and preschool finances run so smoothly.

Cindy Sowers has served faithfully as our church Financial Secretary since December 2016. We have relied on her for her diligent work, organization, and expertise. She has answered our questions, pulled reports, paid bills, and filed our payroll. She has done it all with devotion, patience, and indomitable joy. We are so grateful for her teamwork and friendship.

Many of you have heard the news that Cindy is retiring from her role at Second this summer. Please join us in showing gratitude to Cindy for her faithful years of service. I encourage you to drop by her office on a Tuesday or Thursday (when she’s at work) and share your kind wishes, or send her an email or drop her a note, expressing our gratitude (cindy@spres.org). We look forward to celebrating Cindy at a church staff luncheon this month.

YOUTH

The summer fun kicked off in June with a Youth Council Social at the Brannans. With seven of the eight members on 2021-2022 Youth Council graduating, this night served as a figurative “passing of the torch” as six new youth join Youth Council for 2022-2023! And this year’s Youth Council had their retreat, where we played games, planned fun activities, and prepared to make this coming year the best year ever!

On June 18, we had our first of two Saturdays of Service! It was wonderful helping in the courtyard garden at Family Service of Roanoke, and we learned a lot about how this organization serves our community! Our next Saturday of Service is August 27 here at the Intersection.

The summer fun continued as we cheered on the Salem Red Sox! This was our first Youth Night Out of the summer. Our next one is August 17...and trust us, you do not want to miss it!

On June 28, the Youth had their first stop at Rookies as we began our Hunt for the Best Ice Cream in Roanoke! Mark your calendars for July 26 as we meet at Katie’s for stop number two!

Our Youth B&B Mission Team has been hard at work preparing for our mission trip to serve over 300 local kids in Vacation Bible School—teaching the familiar stories of The Prodigal Son and The Good Samaritan—as well as helping with final touches to the newly constructed medical clinic. The Youth B&B Mission Team leaves July 9 and returns on July 16. We thank all those who have donated supplies. There will be a Commissioning Service during worship on July 3. Please keep

YOUNG ADULTS

The Young Adults of Second Pres joined up for a Red Sox game, shared a midweek lunch, gathered together for a fun night at Elmwood park, and celebrated new milestones!

July is a busy time in the life of our Young Adults, and we are still working out our schedule. Subscribe to text alerts by texting “@2PCYA” to the number 81010 or contact Ben to be added to the email list (benb@spres.org).

On July 31, our Senior High Youth head to Montreat Youth Conference. This conference is a highlight for our youth as they connect with other youth and adults from around the country, explore their faith in new ways, and grow in relationship with God. To help cut costs, we are asking for members to sponsor a meal. Please contact Ben with any questions and for the sign up (benb@spres.org).

It was a wonderful week at Evening VBS in June! Many thanks to the volunteers who planned and prepared our evening meal, and to our guest speaker, the Rev. Howard Dudley. We explored what is unique about being a community of faith and the ways being at church brings hope in the midst of a difficult world. Meg Griffith scripted and directed our children in a custom production called “The Case for Going to Church,” and did a fantastic job!

We are grateful for this fun and transformational time spent together!
