PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday begins Holy Week, a time in the church year when we remember how Christ gave his life in love for the world. As this service opens, the crowd waves palm branches, wanting to crown Jesus as king. But as the story of the passion unfolds, their shouts of praise turn to demands for his crucifixion; he receives a crown of thorns as he is handed over to be mocked and killed. (From the Companion to the Book of Common Worship.)

Call to Worship

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest!

This is the day the Lord has made.

Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest!

Let us rejoice and be glad.

Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest!

* Hymn No. 197/Procession of the Palms Hosanna, Loud Hosanna
(11:00 A.M.) Following the procession of palms, Elizabeth will have a short prayer with the children and dismiss them to CWW or back to the pews.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We are so busy thinking about ourselves, Holy One, that we cannot begin to ponder what was on Jesus' mind. We shout for joy on a day like this, smiling as we wave our palms, yet quickly toss them aside as we go out into the world. We harden our faces, not in discipleship, but to turn away those who come looking for help from us. We want to change, O God. Teach us to be more like Jesus. May we learn to choose humility over pride, weakness over strength, compassion over animosity, and seek to follow The Way.

In the silence, we open our hearts to you, O God.

Assurance of Pardon

*Hymn of Response No. 581 Gloria Patri

Concerns

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer Glory to God, p. 35 (using debts, debtors)

(11:00 A.M.) Anthem Solus ad Victimam Peter Abelard, Kenneth Leighton

Alone to sacrifice thou goest, Lord, giving thyself to Death whom thou hast slain.

For us thy wretched folk is any word? Who know that for our sins this is thy pain?

For they are ours, O Lord, our deeds, our deeds. Why must thou suffer torture for our sin?

Let our hearts suffer in thy Passion, Lord, that very suffering may thy mercy win.

This is the night of tears, the three days' space, sorrow abiding of the eventide,

Until the day break with the risen Christ, and hearts that sorrowed shall be satisfied.

So may our hearts share in thine anguish, Lord, that they may sharers of thy glory be;

Heavy with weeping may the three days pass, to win the laughter of thine Easter Day.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE OUTREACH OFFERING for the month of March will support Child Health Investment Partnership (CHIP). Gun violence in Roanoke has increased at alarming rates. Working directly with the Roanoke police and the Gun Violence Intervention committee, CHIP will implement a comprehensive program in March aimed at both reducing gun violence and providing badly needed therapeutic counseling to individuals and families. Money raised through Second's Outreach Offering will help cover CHIP's cost of providing personal gun safety education in the homes of families living in the most crime-ridden neighborhoods in the city, where one in every three families have been directly impacted by gun violence. CHIP will meet families in their homes to provide gun safety education, gun locks, and professional counseling to nearly 400 families who already know and trust CHIP's outreach team. Second's March Outreach Offering can help turn the tide against gun violence in our city.

Monthly Food Collection for PCC: The food items for month of March are soup, stews, chili, and dry beans. A donation bin is in the coat closet; please check the expiration date before donating.

HOLY WEEK begins on Palm Sunday, when focus is given to that to which all four Gospels point: the events of the last few days of Jesus' life from when he enters Jerusalem to his crucifixion and resurrection. We invite you to join us in the following opportunities as we observe this sacred season.

- MAUNDY THURSDAY, MARCH 28: Maundy Thursday Kairos Worship Service with Communion at 6:00 p.m., Kirk Hall

EVENING VBS FOR ALL AGES | JUNE 9-12 (SUN-WED) | "JOY EVEN ON YOUR WORST DAYS"

Save the date for our annual Evening Vacation Bible School this June. Evening lectures for adults and a fantastic children's theatre program will help us explore more about God and more about ourselves. Registration is now open at www.spres.org!

- For Adults: Guest Speaker: Dr. Tom Are, Jr., Interim Pastor at Fourth Presbyterian Church in Chicago, IL. Program: The world the apostle Paul inhabited was dramatically different from our time. He knew nothing of capitalism, or physics, or Zoom, and more significantly, Paul was a regular in Caesar's prison. For us, "Caesar" is a salad. But a constant in the human story is that every life faces suffering. Paul's life was no different. And yet, on Paul's worst days, he still exhibited a spirit of joy. In this spirit of joy, Paul offers us some inspiration. Joy is not a common reality in modern life. We are more acquainted with anxiety and fear, and on good days we can settle for happiness; but joy is less common. The worst days come to all of us. At some point the dreams die, the body fails, the spirit is crushed. Those days leave their mark on us. But an imprisoned apostle passed down 104 verses to an ancient congregation in Philippi, and they have passed it down to us. It is their testimony that when the worst days come—and they will—they do not have to be the end of joy. Indeed, they might be the beginning.
