PASTOR'S NOTES - THE REV. BEN BRANNAN

RHYTHM OF THE SUMMER

Summer is in full swing, and you probably feel it. Busy schedules. Changing routines. Boredom and overstimulation. The days are getting hotter—which can't be good for all the water molecules in our body. Vacations are happening—which feel weird in and of themselves for some of us as we squeeze in every possible attraction, physically draining us rather than spiritually renewing us. July is the threshold month. We hit the halfway point of the summer and of the year. And so, for some, July might just feel kind of weird.

For this church, well, George is on sabbatical, Elizabeth has returned after two weeks in Scotland, and right now, I am in the Dominican Republic with 16 others on our Youth Bibles & Bricks Mission Trip—we get back to Roanoke in the early morning hours of Sunday the 5th. July in the church might feel kind of weird, too.

I am not defining “weird” as an awkward, disconnected, cringey feeling, but rather as an awareness of something new, like a new sensation or perception, or something unconventional. The word weird is weird in and of itself because it doesn't even follow the traditional "I before E, except after C" rule!! Sorry I digress! But with all that July brings, all that summer brings, "weirdness" might be what you are experiencing.

I say all of this to ask: What is keeping you grounded this summer?

Early in June we had our Evening VBS with Dr. John McCall who helped us notice God in our daily life. He talked about the power of prayer, the gift of God's Word, the grace found in community, and the love known through service. The next week the youth embarked on a 3-day mission experience right here in Roanoke, and now we have a team serving in the DR.

Is prayer keeping you grounded? Does service keep you grounded?

Even with the different rhythms of summer—or perhaps I should say because of the different rhythms of summer—there is space created to find a tempo within your spiritual life, to try something new, or engage again in something that has fallen away.

We gather as one worshipping community during the summer at 10:00 a.m. Have you met someone new?

We do not have Sunday school classes during the summer, which provide more time before and after worship. Have you intentionally lingered longer on Sundays to connect more deeply with others?

There are special gatherings and events during the summer for groups in the church and the church as a whole—Men's Baseball Night Out, Morning VBS, Churchwide Retreat and Picnic Sunday (both in August). Have you experienced the grace found in community?

Summer has come and it will go just as fast. July is here and it might feel weird. Or not. And both are ok! But there is a beautiful gift before us: a chance to engage our faith differently (both on Sundays and during the week), to remain grounded in prayer, in service and in community, and realize God is always there waiting—in the world, in our neighbor, and in our ourselves.

EVENING VBS REPORT

“PAYING ATTENTION TO GOD IN DAILY LIFE”

It was a wonderful week at Evening VBS in June! Guest speaker Dr. John McCall focused on four subjects throughout the week: prayer, scripture, community, and service. Each one is a gift by which we can grow in our faith and recognize and come to know God more. Prayer is a space for us to be real with God, speak honestly about what is going on, and connect with ourselves—whether through words or in silence. Scripture allows us to see “God’s strange new world” as we are invited into the story ourselves—scripture is always relevant; we need to find resonance. Community offers the gifts of grace, encouragement, and space to name and claim the good things around us. Service is a way to connect with God through emptying ourselves as Christ did. Each of these, and all of these together, form an inward and outward avenue for maintaining our vertical connection with God and our horizontal connection with one another. It is at the intersection of those two connections that we can truly live into the words, “thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth [horizontal] as it is in heaven [vertical].”

The grand finale was our children’s original play, “Pay Attention” led by Meghan Griffith, and they absolutely amazed us. With song, comedy, and deep inspiration, it was the perfect ending to an incredible week.

A heartfelt thank you to our Food Services Committee, musicians, and countless volunteers who made this week so special. We are grateful for this fun and transformational time together!

And yes, attendees also enjoyed a special guest appearance by “Charles Sabbatical” (pictured bottom right), who continues to demonstrate that being away and being present are not always mutually exclusive.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR ALL AGES WILL BEGIN ON SEPTEMBER 13!

WELCOME THE STAKOR FAMILY

Please give a warm welcome to Greg and Sarah Stakor, who joined Second Presbyterian Church on March 1, 2026 by reaffirmation of faith.

Greg was raised in Newport News and later lived in the neighboring region of Pittsburgh, PA. Earning a degree in engineering, he graduated from Virginia Tech. Currently, Greg works at Altec Industries in Daleville as an Innovation Manager. His interests include biking, hiking, and all things outdoorsy.

Sarah grew up nearby in Vinton. Like her husband, she also graduated from Virginia Tech, with a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies for teaching. Sarah enjoys any activity outside, music, sports, and cheering on the Hokies.

Greg and Sarah have two daughters, Rebecca and Emily, who are already actively involved in the youth and children's ministries here at Second. We are overjoyed that the Stakors decided to make Second their church home. I hope you will take the opportunity to welcome them warmly if you have not already!

For those expecting to see the July–August Sustainability Spotlight, you'll have to wait until next month. The Green Team is taking a summer break to rest and relax.

Don't be surprised when God's creation reveals its splendor and beauty in unexpected ways, as was the case when the message below was encountered during a walk along the beach.

BUILD IT TOGETHER | 2026 HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BUILD

FINAL PHASE

Our 2026 Partnership Build with Habitat for Humanity alongside St. John's Episcopal is entering its final phase! Since winter, volunteers from both congregations have worked to help build a safe, affordable home for the Moss family, contributing our time, energy, and talents throughout the construction process.

Our final volunteer build day was Thursday, June 25. The home will transition to subcontractor work during July as specialized finishing work is completed. We are hopeful that construction will be finished and the home ready for dedication by the end of August—a joyful milestone that will celebrate the partnership, generosity, and hard work that have made this project possible.

Thank you to everyone who has helped us “Build It Together” this year!
